

☞ How does the flag football game help in the development of the students?

The flag football game helps in the development of the students in the following ways:

1. It helps in the development of the physical fitness of the students.
2. It helps in the development of the teamwork and leadership skills of the students.
3. It helps in the development of the communication skills of the students.
4. It helps in the development of the decision-making skills of the students.
5. It helps in the development of the problem-solving skills of the students.
6. It helps in the development of the confidence of the students.
7. It helps in the development of the self-esteem of the students.
8. It helps in the development of the social skills of the students.
9. It helps in the development of the emotional skills of the students.
10. It helps in the development of the cognitive skills of the students.

